

Derrick Fleming is a 2015 graduate of Suwannee River Ridge Technical High School (SRRTHS). Since his graduation, he has continued to pursue additional learning opportunities with SRRTHS. Recently, he completed an SRRTHS certificate program on the fundamentals of bank telling.

Derrick was nominated for the 2014-15 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Award. He was nominated for this award by his school and community. He is active in his church where he serves as a worship leader and motivational speaker. While completing his high school diploma with SRRTHS, Derrick maintained employment with Publix Supermarket in Live Oak, Florida. Derrick is also the recipient of NJROTC honors and awards.

Derrick's personal integrity, honesty, and hard work ethic have helped him reach his short-term goal of obtaining employment as a professional bank teller. He recently accepted employment as a bank teller with Columbia County Bank in Lake City. He aspires to be a first-class bank teller with eventually learn all aspects of banking. His long-term goals include being a bank president before he retires.

SRRTHS is very proud of our graduates! Derrick is a great example of how hard work, integrity, and personal responsibility can help young folks achieve their dreams. As a peer recruiter, Derrick is available to share about the graduation and certificate programs available at SRRTHS. If you would to talk to Derrick, another Recruiter, or the School Principal, please email your request to cmb@srrths.com.